The HPO Announces No Plans To Leave Hamilton

Hamilton, Ontario – The Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra announces that it has no intentions of leaving its home in Hamilton or Hamilton Place. As Hamilton’s professional orchestra the Hamilton Philharmonic is committed to the city of Hamilton and to providing a world-class orchestral experience for Hamiltonians.

The Hamilton Philharmonic is proud of its long history and deep roots in Hamilton, and is committed to playing its part in continuing to make Hamilton a great place to experience the arts. The HPO is also excited to present the 10.11 concert season to the public on March 5th, and is looking forward to the launch of its brand new “Music Lives Here” campaign at the beginning of March.

About The Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra:

The Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra was founded in 1949 with roots going back to 1884 as The Hamilton Orchestral Society, and it grew to become one of Canada’s major professional orchestras. Today the HPO is a leader in Hamilton’s robust arts community where it provides professional orchestral services and music education programmes to address the needs of the community. The combined musical talents of its artists continue to enrich the community and enhance the quality of life for its residents.
